Marty St. James' stories uncover what performance art is all about, taking readers right into the experience of it. In his singular style, St. James animates his personal memoirs that span from the 1970s to today, with the unexpected, humour and realities of the world. This is a serious book that entertains!

Nina Colosi, Founder/Director, Streaming Museum

. Taking on Joseph Beuys's legacy (along with his penchant for hats), here is an artist unafraid to experiment with the physical boundaries of art, whilst never losing a sense of quest, investigation, and depth of purpose.

Sue Hubbard – award-winning poet, novelist and freelance art critic.
